April 17, 2007

The Internal Revenue Service announced today that taxpayers affected by the April 16 storm in the Northeast will have nine additional days to file their tax returns. Alaska will be honoring the filing extension for all affected corporate income tax filers facing an April 17, 2007 tax deadline.

Corporate taxpayers directly impacted by the major storm that hit the Northeastern states on April 16 will have until midnight April 26, 2007 to meet their Alaska tax filing obligations without incurring late filing or payment penalties.

Affected taxpayers should mark their tax returns with the words “April 16 Storm.”
